AT A GLANCE

Gain global visibility, control, and strategic advantage with next generation spend management.

Answering the critical need for robust spend management: Visa IntelliLink.

In today's complex business environment, effective spend management requires flexible, intuitive, on-demand access to information. Understanding your company's spending patterns, increasing control over spend, identifying opportunities for savings, and ensuring corporate compliance are essential to successful business management. Gain and sustain competitive advantage with sophisticated spend management.

The next generation of global spend management is here.

Introducing Visa IntelliLink Spend Management, an information management tool designed for the needs of companies of all sizes. Available today from your financial institution and Visa, this comprehensive, data-rich, easy-to-use spend management solution replaces the current Visa Information Source and other Visa tools. Visa IntelliLink is both simple to learn and easy to use.

Comprised of three core solution sets—Reporting, Data Services, and Program Support—Visa IntelliLink Spend Management is a complete reporting and full-featured expense management tool integrated into one single platform. It provides global functionality with full language, tax, and currency support at the local level, rolling it all up to a global view for visibility across geographies. Integrated with the entire suite of Visa business-to-business payment products, this new platform of offerings delivers solutions spanning the needs of small companies and global organizations, improved user experience and world-class service and support.

Visa IntelliLink Spend Management includes three core solution sets: Reporting, Data Services, and Program Support.
