Reduce payroll costs, increase processing efficiency and build employee loyalty all at the same time. The Visa Payroll card is a reloadable prepaid card that is a secure, reliable and convenient alternative to paper checks.

The Visa Payroll card opportunity

Expand direct deposit to employees

18% of total U.S. workers (estimated) are not paid by direct deposit into any account.

24% of Millennials (age 18-24) are not paid by direct deposit.

Employer adoption is growing

2.6X increase in employers offering Payroll cards over the past six years.

32% of employers are likely to implement a Payroll card program in the next two years.

Employees prefer companies that offer Payroll cards

76% like an employer more for offering a Payroll card.

82% believe working for a company that offers a Payroll card is a major benefit.

How it works:

1. Employees enroll for the Visa Payroll card through their employer.
2. They receive a card and their pay is automatically deposited into their individual card account.
3. The card can be used to make purchases, pay bills, get cash and manage their money.
4. Additional funds may be loaded to the account through Visa Prepaid Load services or through other methods and channels, as determined by the Issuer.
